DISTRICT COMMISSIONER'S OFFICE,
KIGEZI, KABALE,

9th September, 1938.

Monsieur L'Administrateur Territorial,
Ruhengeri.

Sir,

There has been a theft on 3rd September, 1938, of some 22 articles of various kinds from the house of the Customs Clerk at Kisoro.

2. These include the following easily identifiable articles :

- 1 Uniform coat
- 1 Table cloth inscribed 'WELCOME'
- 3 White shirts inscribed 'made in England' on the ~~back~~ side of the neck.
- 1 Silk shirt
- 1 Ornamental bed-cover
- 2 Pillow covers and a mattress cover
- 4 White underpants.

3. The native who has taken them is a munyarunda named Alphunzi who was employed as washerman by the Customs Clerk. He is described as 'a tall man who always waves his arms about when speaking'. I regret the inadequacy of this description, but as it is likely that the articles may turn up for sale in your market, I should be grateful if you would inform the market master, so that, if the man appears, he may be detained.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your obedient servant,

Copy to: The Customs Clerk,
K I S O R O.
A.C.A. WRIGHT,
OFFICER-IN-CHARGE, POLICE, KABALE.
